The matter was enquired into in detail by the Khazana Bakshi and in the course of enquiry the petitioners and the then pensioners entered into a compromise of their controversy on the following terms:—

I am one of the descendants of Palye-gara family. My father, Dasaratha Raya was receiving a pension of ten Rupees, which is stopped since his death.

The three members of our family, named (1) Sree Ranga Rao Minor-Gaurdian, Giriyavva. (2) Puttu Swamy, Minor-Gaurdian Rudravva (3) Jaganavva, wife of Hi...ppa Rajaih, when they presented the genological tree of their family to your honour in obedience to your Order, left out my name to enter into the family list of Palye-gars.

There is a record of correspondence, regarding my father's pension for the years 1897, 98 & 99 in the Huzoor Treasury Office. You are honourably requested to peruse the same record and be [illegible] vinced with the facts therein.

Now, I humbly beg to request your honour to be kind enough to take me as one of the descendants of Palyegar family and to grant me the pension which is stopped since my father's death.

To

D.M. Narasinga Rao Esqr., B.A., B.L.,

Offg. Secretary to the Government,

General & Revenue Departments,

Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. dated 20/2/13 forwarding petitions from Dod Rangappa and Seethappayya claiming to be included in the Balguthi family, I have the honor to report as follows:--

2. From the records I find that the petitioners, who had been constantly claiming a portion of the pension of the Balaguthi family, for a considerable time past, finally entered into a compromise with the pensioners of the family, which fact was reported to Government in this Office No. 23 dated 14/12/99 though the Government declined to concern themselves with the details connected with it. The matter having so far been set at rest, I was doubtful about the propriety of allowing the petitioners to open again, though indirectly, the same question in the guise of a claim to more membership in the family. Before agreeing to proceed further gave the petitioners clearly to understand that if their intention was to revive their old claim to the family pension, their petition would not be entertained. They assure that it is not their intention to raise any question of pension, but that they only want recognition of their status in the Family.

3. The Barvardars of the Family, who appeared before me after considerable delay in response to the notice issued to them, at first wanted time to file their documents but finally said they had no papers to put in beyond what were filed in the previous enquiries.

4. I have already mentioned, that the petitioners have before this asked very often for a share of the family pension. Necessarily the previous enquiries, held in respect of their claim to pension, embraced also their relationship to the original grantees and to the present members of the Family. One or these enquiries, that preliminary to the compromise referred to above, was, I find, very elaborate and would have in my opinion finally set the long standing dispute at rest, had it only been considered and ordered upon. But the compromise, perhaps having the merit of immediately determining the dispute of the moment, was welcomed and the report of the enquiry not gone into.

5. Though the matter has been thoroughly inquired, yet I invited the present Barawardars to produce all evidence they had oral or documentary ~~report~~ in refutation of the claim set up by the petitioners. I submit their statements, which in the main, merely refers me to the previous enquiry. As nothing new has been adduced I beg to invite kind attention again to the report and to state that in my opinion it seems that the enquiry fairly establishes the claim or Doda Rungappa, and the Amildar's conclusion that Dod Rangappa was the son of Dasappa, one of the original grantees appears to be sound. From the records relating to it it may be seen that the witnesses all underwent cross examination at the hands of professional Lawyer and have stood it remarkably well, more particularly the old lady Bheemava, mother of petitioner Dod Rangappa. The Barawadars, then as now, were unable to shake the testimoney of the witnesses by any rebutting evidence ~~with~~ either oral or documentary.

6. The arguments ~~now~~ urged by the Barawarars against Dod Rangappa are two:-

i. That the petitioner is stopped from raising the question of relationship by the compromise he has entered into in 1899.

ii. That the ~~statement of the Khazana Bakshi in when he submitted a list of pensions to Govern-~~ entry in the History of Polygars prepares in 1862 that Dasappa's pension passed away on his death in 1820 ~~ment that Dasappa died in 1820~~, makes it physically impossible that he could have been, as alleged, the father of Dod Rangappa the petitioner, for then the latter would now be at least 94 years of age, which obviously he is not.

7. With regard to objection No.1, I find that unfortunately for the Barawadars, the opening recital of the document ~~el~~ clearly makes a reservation in the matter of the relationship and goes on to say, that the arrangement then come to was without prejudice to that question. This objection therefore falls to the ground.

8. The second argument is doubtless strong and I should have held it to be conclusive also but for the very strong mass of evidence that Dod Rangappa has put forward to prove that the statement of the Khazana Bakshi, in the history of Polygars in 1862 relative to the death of Dasappa is incorrect and that it was the result of the machinations of his uncle, Dasappa's brother, Thimmappa and mariappa Rajayya who suppressed the fact of Dasappa's existence.

9. Doda Rangappa's averment relates to some intrigue on the part of his uncles nearly a century ago, whereby his father, who was of a weak intellect, was fraudulantly got out of the way, to enable their brother-in-law Mariappa to get his pension. He states that they falsely reported to Govt that he had died in 1820 and had his pension transferred to his brother-in-law Mariappa Rajayya. This fraud owing to Dasappa's mental condition never came to light and was the basis of the report to Government ., of the Kazana Bakshi who accepted 1820 as the year of death of Dasappa. As a fact however, Dod Rangappa avers, Dasappa died only in ~~1819~~. 1861.

10. Now it would be futile to investigate this bit of ancient history nor is it all revelant to the present case except the question whether Dasappa was dead in 1820.

11. One document Doda Rangappa has produced, which is in my opinion, conclusive proof of Dasappa's existence in 1818. It is a petition from the then Sarvardars of the Family presented in that year to the Chief Commissioner praying that the pension of their deceased brother Balaramarajaya may not lapse to Government., but may be granted to their brother Dasappa. I have carefully scrutinised this document which bears distinctly the Government Register Number as usual at the left hand top corner and have no reason to believe that it is not genuine. There is thus almost certain proof that Dasappa was living in 1848.

In the face of this document it is not quite clear how the Kazana Bakshi in the Polygar list of 1862 committed himself to the Statement that Dasappa died in 1820. The explanation may it appears to me be sought in the circumstances that the document instead of finding a place in the archives of the Government Offices, is produced by Doda Rangappa. How the petition presented to the Chief Commissioner and bearing clear traces of having been received and registered in his office could have disappeared from the Government records and be now produced by one of the parties in somewhat mysterious and leads strength to the allegation of Dod-Rangappa, that his uncles, who were by every unscruppulous means trying to suppress the fact of the existence of Dasappa, his father must have contrived to get it back into their possession. This appears to be not improbable because it will be seen that they ultimately succeed in securing the vacant pension of Bahuma, gaining their object to Putiaswami a son of one of themselves. After that it was only reasonable that they should try and remove any evidence of the existence of a person, who was till then considered dead in the Government records. The petition appears to have been a desperate deal and, when they saw that the pension stood in imminent danger of slipping away from the family. It is only natural that they should remove the incriminating documents and it is probable that they managed to get it back. I have dwelt in this matter in some detail merely to show that Dod-Rangappa's contentions that his father Dasappa did not die in in 1820 is ~~stong~~. strong.

12. In support of the above fact Dod Rangappa also adduces the following further evidence. He has produced extracts from the Bara Balathi Register of the village for the year 1854 in which is mentioned the name of Dasappa, also certain lease Deeds ~~of the year~~ and letters of Subsequent years, which similarly mention Dasappa's name. These facts go also to show that Dasappa did not die in 1820 as stated in the ~~Kazana Bakshi's report~~ history of Polygars in 1861 but was alive at a later date.

13. Having established this fact, the last link to complete the chain of evidence to make out his case is the proof of the petitioner (Doda Rangappa) being Dasappa's son. This is born out, Doda Rangappa says, by the Geneological tree of the family furnished to the Kazana Bakshi by the Barawardars of the family in 1889. On a reference to this, it will be found that Dod Rangappa is distinctly mentioned as the son of Dasappa. The respondent Baravardars say that this is a fradulant insertion by their Agent Krishnappa, the pallegars having left such matters entirely in the Agent's hands. The explanation is plausible and considering the mischief that this fraternity has brought among pallegar families, I am myself well disposed to believe it; but the averment stands alone with absolutely nothing to support it. The respondents themselvos have no personal knowledge of the fraud and merely throw it out as a suggestion considering that Dod Rangappa was the sole director of the family affairs at the time. I do not thererore believe it.

14. This fact that the name of the petitioner is found in the Geneological tree coupled with the unshaken evidence of Bheemava that the petitioner is her son and that she was the widow of Dasappa, the brother of the one of the original grantees of the pension, goes to establish fairly conclusively that the petitioner Dod Rangappa is the son of the original Dasappa who enjoyed the pension for sometime.

15. For the foregoing reasons I hold that the petitioner is a member of the Balaguthi Family and recommend that he be recoganised as such.

16. There now remains the other petition of Seethappiya claiming a similar recognition. According to his own showing (Please see copy of Geneological tree produced by him ~~attached to his petition~~) he does not trace his decent from any one of the members who were granted pension by Dewan Purnia but from a collateral line. It may be a genuine decent that he traces but I do not think that Government should concern themselves with such members. I think the pallegars to have any claim on Government should have decendend from the original pensioners whom the ~~latter~~ Govt recoganised at the time of the disruption of ~~their Pallegars~~ their Pallegars or were treated with by ~~Government~~ them and not from any one else.

In this view I think Seethappiya's claim may be rejected.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Khazana Bakshi.
